SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

A scholarship committee will determine the recipient of the scholarship after reading through the attached criteria and will require the scholarship candidates to come before this committee for an interview. The scholarship will be presented at the senior banquet and will be awarded directly to the college the student will be attending. The student's social security number will then be needed.

1. Attach a resume. On your resume make sure the following is included: extracurricular activities, offices you have held, awards won, and competitions or activities you have taken part in during your freshman through senior years. List places of employment and responsibilities held.
2. Attach a list of your involvement in Family and Consumer Sciences related activities and classes.
3. Include an essay explaining how FACS experiences have influenced you and how they will continue to help you in your future.
4. How do your career plans relate to Family and Consumer Sciences beyond graduation?
5. How would this scholarship help you with your financial obligation at college?
6. Attach two letters of recommendation emphasizing your qualifications on why you should be a candidate for this scholarship.
